CUBA
Columbus Zoo’s Cuban Explorers
Havana, Playa Larga, Soroa, Las Terrazas & Cojimar
November 8-15, 2020
Day 1, Sunday  WELCOME TO CUBA

Arrive in one of the world's most vibrant cities, Havana. Upon arrival you will process customs and pick up your luggage. Depart the arrivals hall where your guide will be standing in the center holding a clearly marked Columbus Zoo sign.

After you connect with your guide, depart the airport for the nearby Cuban National Autopista, absorbing the citrus groves, sugar cane fields, and range land with cattle dotting the landscape, along your way to Playa Larga and the head waters of the Bay of Pigs. Check into your lodging for the next three nights and freshen up.

All of today is kept flexible to accommodate arrival in Playa Larga.

Dinner tonight is at Enrique's which features fresh Cuban seafood. A national park guide discusses preparation for tomorrow's adventure. (D)

Day 2, Monday  ZAPATA AND BIRDING

After an early breakfast, enjoy a walk in the Zapata Swamp National Park to discover the sights and sounds of this tropical area with local guides and park rangers. Discover some of the 22 of 26 endemic bird species of Cuba. This region was declared a biosphere reserve in 2000 and a unique Ramsar Site in 2001. It covers an area of 628,171 hectares and is the largest and best-conserved wetland in Cuba and the Caribbean.

Depending on the weather and where the birds are, this afternoon likely visit the Salinas area of the park where wetland birds and American Flamingos are abundant. Walk a trail through a rural area at Soplillar with your guides and likely find Fernandina's Flickers, a host of wintering warblers, Cuban pygmy owls, Cuban Hutia (endemic rodent) and other species amongst the open country dotted by pines and deciduous trees.

“Join me on a unique journey to Cuba and discover the abundant wildlife and the warm, friendly and welcoming people. I had the unique opportunity to explore Cuba on behalf of the Zoo’s conservation research efforts and I’m sure, like me, you’ll find it to be a country of indefinable magic. Did you know that more plant and animal species take refuge on this narrow island than anywhere else in the Caribbean? We’ll encounter them together as we travel under the “Support for the Cuban People” license. I look forward to sharing my experiences and insight with you as we explore the culture and wildlife of this distinctive and biologically rich country.”

– Doug Warmolts

Doug Warmolts, Vice President of Animal Care, is looking forward to leading this special trip to Cuba where he can share his first hand experiences with you. Starting at the Zoo in 1988 as curator of the Aquarium Department, one of Doug’s first major accomplishments was the design and opening of Discovery Reef in 1993. Over his 31-year career of dedication to the conservation of wildlife, Doug has held several animal management positions and has had a leading hand in shaping many of the current animal habitats at the Zoo, including Polar Frontier and Heart of Africa. His field conservation efforts have included numerous recognized programs such as the rescue and rehabilitation of manatees in Florida and the Caribbean. He has served on numerous professional conservation committees and boards within the Zoological community. Doug currently leads the Zoo’s operations for the welfare and care of its animals. An experienced international traveler, he looks forward to sharing his passion for wildlife and wild places – as well as his many stories – with you on this journey to Cuba.
The evening and dinner are at your leisure. Less that 50 meters from your hotel are the waters of the Bay of Pigs. Feel free to enjoy a beach walk, lay in the shade of coconut palms, or discover Cuban wildlife scurrying about on your own. (B,L)

Day 3, Tuesday  KORIMAKAO PROJECT AND SNORKELING AT THE FISH CAVE
Depart early with a box breakfast, heading to marsh habitats at La Turba. We hope to see some of the rarer Cuban specialty birds: Zapata wren, Zapata sparrow, and Red-shouldered blackbirds on a great adventure. Also keep your eyes open for an endangered Cuban crocodile.

Late morning visit the Korimako Dance troop to learn more about this fascinating community project led by the Cuban actor Manuel Porto. For more than two decades he has taught various artistic skills to the indigenous people of the Zapata Swamp.

Later take a short drive and skirt the shoreline to the “Fish Cave,” a cenote, and discover some of Cuba’s aquatic resources. You can rent snorkeling/scuba gear here and discover the cenote or the coral reef just across the road. BE SURE you bring some water shoes as the rocks can be a bit sharp.

Day 4, Wednesday  ZUN ZUN, HEMINGWAY AND HAVANA
After breakfast and with your bags packed, check out of your accommodations so we may depart for Havana. Before leaving Zapata, join Orlando Ramirez, a local farmer for a walk to find and observe the Zun-Zun—the Cuban bee hummingbird—which is the smallest bird in the world. Orlando’s back yard is full of endemic shrubs that attract these birds.
Later travel to San Francisco de Paula, just outside of Havana, and visit Ernest Hemingway’s estate Finca Vigía. A local Hemingway expert guides you through his life in Cuba and shares some interesting stories. It was at Finca Vigía that he wrote much of For Whom the Bell Tolls. The novel was started at the Hotel Ambos Mundos in Old Havana, and some of it was also written in Idaho. He would later buy Finca Vigía out of some of the first royalties from the book, published in 1940.

Lunch is kept flexible to meet our travel itinerary and at your own expense. Likely plan on enjoying lunch at El Divino, a garden oasis near Finca Vigía. Be sure to join Marco, the owner, as he shows you his private wine cellar featuring over 3000 bottles in his collection.

Tonight, enjoy a traditional Cuban Lechón Asado (roasted pig) festivity—the ultimate Cuban experience! From the back terrace at one of Havana’s most elite private restaurants, Habanera, enjoy a famed Piro Pig as seen on Anthony Bourdain’s No Reservations and Eat the World with Emeril Lagasse. This is served with traditional Cuban accompaniments such as congri rice, cassava with mojo and salad. Enjoy the feast while being entertained by a private band and learning a bit of salsa with professional dancers. Arrive a bit early and venture across the street to Havana’s largest Casa de Habanos with its walk-in humidor to take a look at the many Cuban cigar brands offered.

For a late Saturday night, consider joining your guide on a Jazz Pub Crawl; venture around Havana to some of the more popular non-tourist hang outs. Live music at jazz clubs such as La Zorra y El Cuervo, Jazz Café, and the Yellow Submarine is popular. If the action is too slow, or you want another venue, chat with your guide. Other popular nightclubs include Corner Café, Espacios (where many Cuban celebrities end up late at night) and El Sauce. Your guide will know what is popular and the action usually begins at 9:30pm. Entrance fees, guiding service, and transportation are included, but drinks and cocktails are at your own expense. (B,D)

Day 5, Thursday
CULTURAL AND ARTSY HAVANA

This morning is at leisure, before departing about 11am along Havana’s Malecon to Callejón de Hamel, a narrow two-block long alley between Aramburu and Hospital streets in Centro Habana. It has become a shrine to Afro-Cuban religions over the years through the art created by Salvador González. The buildings are lined with brightly-colored paintings, murals, sculptures and objects, which depict rituals and deities. On Sunday’s, starting around noon, frenetic rumba music begins as well as Santeria dances. You will see many traditional African musical instruments being played and be prepared to play the tumbadora (conga) and to dance to your heart’s contentment. The area is full of psychedelic art shops and Santeria paraphernalia.

Lunch is at another favorite just a few blocks west of central park, Paladar San Cristobal at your own expense. Unique décor accents this excellent paladar. The food here is also a blend of modern twists on Cuban favorites. Make sure you order the picy-picy platter, an assortment of various ceviche. Insider’s Tip: Our hands-down favorite is the eggplant ceviche! The service and food are very good and it is a foodie’s delight. Afterwards, visit Havana’s Fine Arts Museum, Bellas Artes. It is a must for many people traveling to Cuba who want to learn about the country’s past through the eyes of its artists. Visit the famous Cuba modern collection this morning and enjoy works of art that display the stunning creativity of the island nation’s vibrant art community. From here, if interested, enjoy a performance by the internationally acclaimed National Cuban Ballet in the stunning Grand Theater from 5pm until 7pm. Enjoy dinner at El Cocinero, which features outdoor dining and located beside F.A.C. – Fabrica de Arte Cubano. Recently FAC was chosen as winner of renowned World Travel Choice award as it is an amalgamation of art exhibitions, a local meeting place and an entertainment mecca that is uniquely Cuban. With its three stages and walls lined with rolling art exhibitions, FAC has captured the attention of celebrities and VIPs from around the world. FAC is an excellent location to mingle with local, artistically minded Cubans. After dinner, enjoy VIP access to this venue and skip the lines. Drinks and cocktails are at your own expense. (B,D)

Day 6, Friday
FOLLOWING THE STEPS OF HEMINGWAY

Visit Cojimar which was made famous by Ernest Hemingway’s love of fishing from this small village where he kept his boat.

As a special treat this morning, join the staff at the original Ajiaco Paladar as you select ingredients from the garden and work to transform them into their beloved ajiaco stew—known and enjoyed around the Caribbean. This unique dish is particularly loved as dearly by locals as Americans love the hot dog. Learn to make a couple seafood dishes, Cuban mojitos, and more! We hope you are hungry!!!

Return to Havana for time to visit Centro Cultural Antiguo; Almacenes de Deposito San José (the central handicraft market) in Old Havana. Located in a refurbished 1800s port side warehouse, this mecca of paintings and sculptures offers any type of Cuban-made handicraft you can imagine. It includes paintings, guayabera shirts, woodwork, leather items, jewelry and numerous apparitions of the highly marketable El Che.

Strike out with your guide on a walking tour of Old Havana. For the next several hours, join your guide as you stroll through Old Havana’s Plazas and learn the stories of the past five centuries here. Feel free to break off from the group and spend the day discovering on your own and your own pace.

Later this evening, return to your lodging and freshen up for dinner. Ride to dinner in style in a classic American Car from the 1950s. This marvelously preserved vehicle winds its way around tight streets and along the Malecon to the iconic Hotel Nacional. Its beautiful lobby has welcomed political leaders, royals and VIPs for over 85 years, and many times mistresses and lovers accompanied the well-to-do adding scandal and intrigue to the hotel’s legacy. Visit the famed Hall of History on the way to the gardens outside where we take in the stunning views from the terraces overlooking the sea and Havana’s seaside avenue (the Malecon). Visiting Hotel Nacional lends tremendous perspective into what Havana was like during the days of Lucky Luciano and Frank Sinatra. From here, enjoy dinner tonight at your own expense at 7:30 at La Guarida Paladar. Located in a former sugar barons home in Central Havana, this paladar is one of the oldest and most known to the outside world. It is where the Oscar-nominated Cuban movie Strawberry and Chocolate was filmed.

The chefs are considered the fathers of “nouveau Cuban cuisine,” preparing dishes such as tuna glazed with coconut, and suckling pig in a honey and orange sauce to absolute perfection. After dinner, be sure venture to the top floor bar for some interesting cityscape shots. (B,L)

Day 7, Saturday  SOROA DISCOVERY, WATERFALLS, AND LAS TERRAZAS ADVENTURE

Discover the Soroa Orchid Gardens, one of the finest botanical gardens in the Caribbean. The temperature, humidity, and protection of the UNESCO Biosphere Reserve have created a 35,000 square meter “Garden of Eden” with over 20,000 different plants and 700 species of exotic orchids. Learn how these plants flourish and how the gardens came about. The gardens also are a large attractant to endemic birds such as the Cuban parrot and Cuban trogon. Likely we will also find the prevalent Cuban brown anole living amongst this densely planted area. Known appropriately as the “rainbow of Cuba,” Soroa is a gorgeous natural area and tiny settlement 85km southwest of Havana and about an hour from Viñales. Located 8km north of Candelaria in the Sierra del Rosario, the easternmost and highest section of the Cordillera de Guaniguanico, the region’s heavy rainfall (more than 1300mm annually) promotes the growth of tall trees and orchids. Next take a leisurely 2km walk along the San Juan River and a rustic concrete path. The lush vegetation and tranquil sounds of the small river with its many falls are an ideal area to observe wildlife. At the end of the trail, the Soroa waterfall is a beautiful sight. For those who don’t wish to venture into the gorge below, enjoy the apex view and a beverage amongst the flats while others hike (finished stairs) below for a swim in the natural pool. We will provide you a towel but be sure you bring some flip-flops or appropriate shoes that can get wet.

Venture to the nearby Las Terrazas Biosphere Reserve, which came into being after a 1968 reforestation project. Explore Cuba’s earliest surviving coffee plantation, visit the beautiful whitewashed village of Las Terrazas, the medical outpost, and eco hotel La Moka. Take time to visit the local artists, potters, and wood carvers. After lunch, the adventurous can take advantage of the zip line canopy tour (at your own expense). The zip line is 1.6km long, allowing you to enjoy the landscape of Las Terrazas Community from above. This afternoon journey to Banos de San Juan and discover this tranquil park along the San Juan River. Be sure to bring your swimsuit as you will likely take a dip in the river. Continue to discover the flora and fauna here as it is a natural area where birds and animals congregate. Dinner tonight is flexible and more casual to accommodate the activities of the day. Dinner will be at a good paladar, but at the guides direction depending on the group and group leader. (B,L,D)
